$100 NW Voucher

The winner of the $100 New World voucher for booking & attending Parent Interviews was Kristen Kingon. Congratulations Kristen. It was great to see so many families attend.

DHS Enrolments

Dannevirke High School (Year 9 2025) enrolments for students are being held between 9am – 12pm on the 29th of August in the Huia Range School Hall.

Please ring Suzie in our office to book an appointment time if you haven't already done so.

On the 29th of August, please come through the office to pick your child up to meet with the Dannevirke High School staff at your appointment time.

The enrolment process usually lasts around 15-20 minutes, paperwork is filled out.

You have the opportunity to have a chat about high school and the DHS staff find out a bit more about your child's interests etc.

Library Trip

Rooms 5, 6, 7 & 15 are visiting the Tararua Dannevirke Library next Tuesday morning, 20th August. Students are travelling by bus to & from the Library. Please advise your classroom teacher if you haven't received your child's permission slip.

Photos

School photos have arrived at the school office for whānau that ordered them, they are available to be picked up. If you wish to have your photos sent home with you child, please ring and let the office know or send a note in – there are still quite a few to be picked up thanks

Ice skating

We have been offered the opportunity to have some students attend The Ice Skate Tour that will be set up on the 13th of September at a local venue. We hope to have three classes attend and we are currently finalising which classes are attending. This will be a great opportunity for these students to give ice skating a try.
