Ice skating Trip

Next week Rooms 2, 3, & 4 have been given the opportunity to attend an ice-skating session on Friday 13th September. Permission slips need to be back asap thanks.

There are also two nights available that it is open to the public so they can book for an ice disco – more information is on local community Facebook pages.

Daffodil Day

Last Friday was a great day for our tamariki and staff.

Some very creative yellow & green' outfits were worn and just over $250 was raised and donated to the Cancer Society.

Thank you to everyone who supported this day.

Library Trip

Rooms 9 & 10 are visiting the Tararua District Library tomorrow – some permission slips still need to be returned thank you.

The visit is one of the challenges that classes can complete as part of the 'Chillout & Read' Library programme.

School Science Fair

The Huia Range School Science Fair is being held on Wednesday 11th September in the school hall.

Wednesday 11th September:

Science Fair displays set up by 11am.

Judging commences from 11am, then the hall will be open to classes to view.

Thursday 12th September:

9am – 12pm the hall will be open to whānau, caregivers & classes. Please come through the bus gate/ramp to the hall like you do for Discos (Signs will be out)

12pm – hall closes and displays removed by 3pm.

There are prizes and certificates for each age group section.

Touch Rugby

If your child is interested in playing Touch Rugby, please ask them to collect a form from the office asap.

Touch Rugby starts in Term 4 for all those wanting to play.

The Dannevirke Primary school commences Friday October 18th, 2024.
